

Tween and Teen Ceiling Tile Art Contest

The Osceola Library System is excited to announce the Ceiling Tile Art Contest as part of the “Express Yourself” Summer Reading Program! All Tweens and Teens are invited to submit a tile promoting reading, learning, and the Library and its resources.

Find the complete set of rules and other information at www.osceolalibrary.org or contact the Teen Services Librarian, Jennifer Parsick, at Jpar3@osceola.org

Ceiling Art Contest Rules

1. One original entry per person. No copies.
2. Artwork must be two of a two dimensional format (ex: paint, markers, pen & ink) and must be suitable for public viewing. The Library reserves the right to refuse any entry.
3. Ceiling Tiles are 2’ x 2’ and will be provided to artists that submit a rough draft of the design prior to or during scheduled studio times. Tiles provided by the Library will be stored at each Branch Library after each studio time.

Teen Ceiling Art Tile Contest
Osceola Library System
June 15, -July 29, 2009

As a child, did you love drawing on the walls? How about the ceiling? Now you can do it at the Library-- without getting into trouble! Tweens and Teens grades 5 and up are invited to Express Themselves @ the Library by designing a tile for the Library's Teen Space Ceiling Art Contest. The Library will provide the canvasses (a.k.a. ceiling tiles), materials, and studio time; it's up to the teens to make the masterpiece!

Artwork must follow the contest guidelines and be submitted by the July deadline to qualify. Winners will be announced on Saturday, August 1st at the End-of-Summer Reading Bash at the Hart Memorial Central Library in downtown Kissimmee. Artists need not be present to win. Grand Prizes will be provided by the Friends of the Osceola Library. For the official contest rules, please visit the Library's website at www.OsceolaLibrary.org
